

Question 1

What specific competencies or capabilities are currently lacking in NCLs to implement non-animal testing strategies effectively?

Question 2

What mechanisms or initiatives are currently being used to build competence in NCLs, and how effective have they been?

Question 3

What practical strategies could help NCLs overcome current complexities in adopting non-animal testing – especially in resource-limited contexts?