

HSI AFSA 3Rs EVENT PRIVACY STATEMENT

The personal information you provide in the registration materials or in connection with your participation in the event, including but not limited to title, first and last name, country, occupation, job title and organization and email address, will be collected and further processed by International Alliance for Biological Standardisation (IABS) and Humane Society International and its affiliates (HSI) for the efficient organization and management of the event, including management of lists for contacts, event follow-up, news and publications. Your personal information may be shared with AFSA for purposes pertaining to the organization and management of the event including event follow-up. Your personal data may also be shared with service providers and/or external contractors and organizers for purposes pertaining to the organization and management of the event that have provided us with assurances that they process personal information under suitable data protection arrangements. AFSA and service providers and external contractors may have their own privacy policy that will govern their use of your personal information. HSI is based in the United States and will transfer the personal data or information provided by you in connection with the event to countries outside of your country of residence, including to the United States, which countries may not have data protection laws as comprehensive as those existing in your country of residence. The HSI Privacy Policy can be found at <https://www.hsi.org/privacy-cookie-policy/>.

Photographs/pictures, presentations, audio and video recording of speakers and participants and live web streaming of this event may be taken for creating awareness and distributing information on the event, which may be reproduced in various media including publications, website, social networks and the press in connection with the event, as well as for promotional activities of HSI. Each attendee hereby grants AFSA, IABS and HSI, and their respective licensees, affiliates, employees and representatives permission to record them at the event, and distribute and publish (both now and in the future) the attendee's name, image or voice in video and/or audio recordings, broadcast, rebroadcast, electronic reproductions. Each attendee, by attending the event, expressly consents to and authorizes such use and waives any rights of privacy and/or publicity they may have in connection therewith.
