Lyne Le Palaire serves as the Quality Advocacy Leader and is a member of the Sanofi Global Quality External Liaison department. Based in Lyon, France, she holds a Master of Science (MSc) degree in Strategy, Development & Production in Bio-industries, which she obtained from a French university in 2003. With 19 years of experience in the pharmaceutical industry, Lyne has worked in Quality (both Policy & Manufacturing), Supply Chain, and Manufacturing Technology.

As the Quality Advocacy Leader, Mrs. Le Palaire is responsible for developing Sanofi's Quality Advocacy position, coordinating related activities, and engaging with external stakeholders. She is therefore member of the IFPMA Quality & Regulatory working group, which aims to enhance global access to medicines and vaccines.
